CITY GREET'S 350 ROTARIANS JAPAN "UNCOVER'S" WAR PLOT

MOVEMENT ON FOOT TO PUSH BIG CONFLICT

So Tokio War Office Is Informed—Americans Under Gun Fire.

TOKIO, May 10 — A concerted movement is on foot in China to unite the hostile factions for war against Japan, the war office was informed today. Following the issuance of a manifesto by Marshal Chang Tso Lin, dictator of the Peking government, announcing cessation of hostilities against the Nationalists, it was learned that Chang is urging the southern (Nationalist) leaders to unite with his northern armies "to repulse the common foe."

LONDON, May 10 — United States Vice Consul Ernest B. Price and other Americans were under fire at Tsinan during the battle between Japanese and Chinese troops, but all escaped without injury, according to advices received today from Tsinan. In order to reach the railway station to flee the city upon a train provided by the Japanese the Americans had to pass through a zone over which light artillery shells and machine gun bullets were flying.

The Chinese Nationalists claim that more than 500 Chinese were killed in the Japanese bombardment that followed the refusal of the Chinese to accept the Japanese ultimatum at Tsinan.

It is reported that desultory firing is still in progress although the main force of Chinese soldiers had moved northward from Tsinan. There is considerable curiosity in official circles to ascertain the reception the Nationalists give to Marshal Chang Tso Lin's statement that the north has ceased warfare against south China.

WASHINGTON, May 10 — Japan will have a free hand in Shantung Province so long as she does not violate the terms of the Washington nine-power treaty of 1922.

This was the consensus in diplomatic circles here today following the second visit of Ambassador Matudaria of Japan, with Secretary of State Kellogg in as many days.

The powers accept in good faith Japan's declaration that she is in Shantung only to protect lives and property of her Nationals. Observations that she has perhaps been unduly vigorous in the execution of this policy do not warrant suspicion of her motives, according to diplomats here.

Although the diplomatic situation created by the Isian crisis and the disregard of the Japanese ultimatum by the Chinese Nationalists presents actual warfare in the disputed area, the powers see no justification for efforts at mediation so long as treaty obligations are respected on all sides.

Suggestions that the United States act as mediator between Japan and southern forces of China find little cordial response at the state department. Such action would be proper only after the invitation had come from both parties. Japan takes the view there are no questions for arbitration so long as she remains within her treaty rights.

IDENTIFY SLAIN MAN
BUCYRUS, O., May 10 — Found shot to death in a shack along the Pennsylvania railroad near Crestline Feb. 5, 1927, the giant, six-foot man known only as Frank Wilson to authorities here was today positively identified as James Ross, "Blacksmith," alleged gambler, bootlegger and a bad man in a fight" of Rush, Texas.

TO LEARN AVIATION
H. A. Stout and Durwood Dowden leave next week for Anderson, Ind., and will become cadets in aviation. They will take a preliminary examination, and if accepted will be given the study of the science of aviation.

HERE'S WHAT ROTARY CLUB REALLY DOES

And Just What This Great Fraternal Organization Is, Too.

The Rotary club is a voluntary association of men meeting once each week for a luncheon or dinner—but Rotarians are quick to assert and maintain that a Rotary club is something more than a luncheon club. These are some of the reasons:

First, the meetings of the Rotary club are characterized by wholesome good fellowship and the development of more intensive and more practical friendships.

Second, its membership is formed on the unique plan of one active and representative man from each line of business and profession in the community.

Third, acceptance of membership in a Rotary club comprises the acceptance of the ideals of Rotary and the assumption of a responsibility for living and promoting them in all daily contacts of business, civic, and social affairs.

The benefits that come to men, or some of them at least, from holding membership in the Rotary club may be stated as follows:

Making the acquaintance of men you ought to know. Genuine, wholesome good fellowship.

Developing true and helpful friends.

Enlightenment as to other men's work, problems, and successes.

Education in methods that increase efficiency.

Stimulation of one's desire to be of service to his fellowmen and society in general.

Developing a new outlook on one's own business or profession, seeing it more as a service to the community than as only an instrument of private gain.

The Rotary club does not, as an organization, promote and carry on civic activities rightfully belonging to other organized agencies, but through its teachings it is hoped that every Rotarian may awaken to his civic duty and as an individual participate in the activities which go to make a community a better place in which to live.

As a Rotarian, one must positively live the ideals of Rotary which are embodied in its objects. They are:

1.—The ideal of service as the basis of all worthy enterprise.

2.—High ethical standards in business and professions.

3.—The application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian to his personal, business, and community life.

4.—The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service.

5.—The recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society.

6.—The advancement of understanding, goodwill, and international peace through a world fellowship of business and professional men united in the Rotary ideal of service.

CIRCLEVILLE MAY HAVE NEW HOTEL AND SHOW HOUSE

Syndicate Said To Have Secured Option For Erection of Building.

Rumors that a Columbus syndicate of business men is planning the erection of a new theatre and hotel in Circleville have not been substantiated, although it is said a 30-day option has been secured on the property owned by L. M. Mader and the home of Harp Van Riper, corner of Court and Watt-sts., opposite the Scioto traction depot.

It is understood if the option is exercised that the first floor of a proposed three-story downtown structure will be used for a theatre and the second and third floors for a hotel, with elevator accommodations and other modern improvements.

It is understood definitely the option has been secured, but plans have not been completely divulged.

AUTO SALESMAN IN CONVENTION HERE THURSDAY

Twenty-five salesmen and agents of the Chevrolet Automobile Co. of this district, which includes the towns of Hillsboro, Atlanta, Chillicothe and this city, met Thursday at the office of the Ohio Utilities Co.

The meeting was in charge of the local agent, George H. Adkins who was also the host.

E. A. Stephens and C. D. Roth in charge as sales managers for this district with Cincinnati as headquarters, told the agents and salesmen how to follow up and close a prospect, and how to get the initial payment. They explained salesmanship and told how the "Go Getter" secures his prospect and lands an order.

FACES MURDER

CANTON, O., May 10 — Mrs. Gladie Vargo, 22, Alliance, has been indicted for first degree murder by a Stark-co. grand jury in connection with the death of Mrs. Bernice Huib, 29, Alliance, who she is charged with stabbing last month. The indictment is the first for first degree murder returned here since the Don P. Mellett investigations.

TO VISITING ROTARIANS (An Editorial.)

The Circleville Herald today dedicates this edition of Circleville and Pickaway-Co's one big daily newspaper to the 350 visiting Rotarians who are guests of the Circleville Rotary club and the city itself.

The Herald wants each and every Rotarian to know that it stands back of Rotarian ideals, Rotarian principles and Rotarian work. Especially does it feel that the crippled children labors of the Rotary clubs of America are not in vain.

Very few people in cities where Rotary clubs meet once a week realize, outside of the clubmen themselves, that Rotary lives to do something else besides convene in a dining room once a week to laugh and eat fine cooked food.

Rotary club work is based on "Service." Rotarians in this city, by their efforts, have established themselves in the city not only as a class of business and professional men and tradesmen but as men with a vision, men who want to see their city and their county take its place in the spotlight of the world's endeavor and progress.

Likewise, have Rotarians in other cities won their way into the hearts of their communities.

They have established as the base of their operations the childhood of America, the bettering of social and physical conditions of mankind.

And if Henry L. Mencken and a few rabid individualists of this class who like to stir up personal attacks through criticism, find fault with what Rotary clubs are doing when they themselves have contributed so little to the betterment of the world, such attacks can be rightfully disregarded as coming from erratic sources.

Circleville wishes it could have every Rotarian here in its city today as a permanent resident, not merely as a visitor.

Darrow To Wind Up Trial Case On Old Grounds

JEFFERSON, O., May 10 — Clarence Darrow, famous Chicago criminal lawyer, Thursday was expected to wind up the defense case in the trial of James Monsene, alleged Warren, O., bootlegger, on charges of attempted bribery. The trial has been styled "Darrow's home-coming case," due to the veteran attorney's expressed desire some months ago to "handle one more defense on my old stamping ground."

The state rested Wednesday and Darrow immediately called witnesses in an attempt to show that Monsene could not have visited Sheriff J. H. Smith's residence in Trumbull county on the night he is alleged to have offered Mrs. Smith, the sheriff's wife, a bribe of $500.

Concentrating his attention upon a "possible alliance of Sheriff Smith and Attorney Jay Bookwalter of Warren, O., with an organization which we will not identify," Darrow entered into an exhaustive cross-examination of each. Smith and Bookwalter are considered the state's star witnesses in this. Monsene's third trial, twice previously in Trumbull county Monsene was convicted on the bribery charge, but each time the conviction was reversed.

Wednesday's crowd was said to have been the largest in the history of Ashland county's court room, to which Monsene was removed on a change of venue.

AL TALKS PLAIN

NEW YORK, May 10 — Governor Alfred E. Smith issued before the state committee investigating campaign fund expenditures today that he had authorized no one to act as chairman of treasurer of any national campaign fund in his behalf. He said he understood that some of his friends in New York City had started a similar presidential campaign fund and personally had "done nothing about it."

The governor said that any money spent in his behalf in New York City could be explained by George R. Van Namee. Personally, the governor had taken no active interest in the finances of friends who had interested themselves in his behalf.

OHIO'S CORRUPT PRACTICES ACT TO BE ENFORCED

That's Campaign Warning Sounded By Attorney-General Turner In Talk.

TOLEDO, O., May 10 — Warning to "everybody," including political candidates and contributors to political campaigns, that Ohio's corrupt practices act "will be enforced" was voiced here today by Attorney General Edward C. Turner, addressing the Women's Republican club of Lucas-co.

"Where any candidate indulges in the same practices that have obtained in the past—that of spending, either directly, or indirectly, in excess of the statutory limitation, whether from his own money, or from contributions—prosecutions will follow," Turner asserted.

Turner said that, as a candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, he personally will not accept any contributions "from anyone, either directly, or through a committee. I shall not spend a total of more than $5,000 for both the nomination and election, if I am nominated," he said. "My own books and records will be open to inspection at any time, both before and after the nomination."

"As a matter of clean government," continued Turner, "I would like to see all candidates take the same stand on the acceptance of contributions. If any candidate feels that he cannot afford to spend his own money, then let him limit the amount of contributions which he will accept, either directly or through a committee, to the amount fixed by statute within the case of governor is $5,000. If a candidate spends in excess of the statutory limitation he not only subjects himself to punishment but disqualifies himself from office."

WILLIAMSPORT SCENE OF SIX NIGHT THEFTS

Four Stores and Two Filling Stations Robbed; Loot Only $27.

Robbers who visited six places of business in Williamsport, Wednesday night, secured a total of $27 for their trouble.

Two restaurants, two stores and two gasoline filling stations were entered and the fact that the same method of gaining entrance was used as when the Schieler garage and the Columbus oil station here were entered several weeks ago, leads authorities to believe the same gang of robbers perpetrated the crimes.

The thieves cut panels out of the doors at the various places visited. Pitt's and Wing's restaurants, Luellen's drug store, Clark's, and the John L. Hunsicker and Cryder filling stations were the places robbed.

Five dollars was taken at the Wing restaurant, $13 at the Clark filling station and $9 at Cryder's. Stores at Ashville were also robbed in a similar manner recently.

Elliott Henry Suffers Burns In Auto Blaze

The right hand of Mr. Elliott Henry was slightly burned this morning when the top of his Essex coach caught on fire from a burning cigarette.

Mr. Henry had stopped his car for a traffic light and was lighting the cigarette when a spark landed on the left roof. It was forced to work fast as the fire is highly inflammable and spreads quickly.

The injured hand was given immediate attention as it was burned quite badly.

The original Rotary club was started in the city of Chicago on the twenty-third of February 1905, by a lawyer, Mr. Paul P. Harris, who found himself a stranger in a large city where to outward appearances the chief stimulus to thought in the ordinary mind is money, the getting and the losing of it.

TO VISITING ROTARIANS

(An Editorial.)

The Circleville Herald today dedicates this edition of Circleville and Pickaway-Co's one big daily newspaper to the 350 visiting Rotarians who are guests of the Circleville Rotary club and the city itself.

The Herald wants each and every Rotarian to know that it stands back of Rotarian ideals, Rotarian principles and Rotarian work. Especially does it feel that the crippled children labors of the Rotary clubs of America are not in vain.

Very few people in cities where Rotary clubs meet once a week realize, outside of the clubmen themselves, that Rotary lives to do something else besides convene in a dining room once a week to laugh and eat fine cooked food.

Rotary club work is based on "Service." Rotarians in this city, by their efforts, have established themselves in the city not only as a class of business and professional men and tradesmen but as men with a vision, men who want to see their city and their county take its place in the spotlight of the world's endeavor and progress.

Likewise, have Rotarians in other cities won their way into the hearts of their communities.

Rotary clubs stand for everything that is noteworthy in the world of men and matters.

They have established as the base of their operations the childhood of America, the bettering of social and physical conditions of mankind.

And if Henry L. Mencken and a few rabid individualists of this class who like to stir up personal attention through criticism, find fault with what Rotary clubs are doing when they themselves have contributed so little to the betterment of the world, such attacks can be rightfully disregarded as coming from erratic sources.

Circleville wishes it could have every Rotarian here in its city today as a permanent resident, not merely as a visitor.

Darrow To Wind Up Trial Case On Old Grounds

JEFFERSON, O., May 10.—Clarence Darrow, famous Chicago criminal lawyer, Thursday was expected to wind up the defense case in the trial of James Monsene, alleged Warren, O. bootlegger, on charges of attempted bribery. The trial has been styled "Darrow's home-coming case," due to the veteran attorney's expressed desire some months ago to "handle one more defense on my old stamping ground."

The state rested Wednesday and Darrow immediately called witnesses in an attempt to show that Monsene could not have visited Sheriff J. H. Smith's residence in Trumbull county on the night he is alleged to have offered Mrs. Smith, the sheriff's wife, a bribe of $500.

Concentrating his attention upon a "possible alliance of Sheriff Smith and Attorney Jay Bookwalter of Warren, O., with an "organization which we will not identify," Darrow entered into an exhaustive cross-examination of each. Smith and Bookwalter are considered the state's star witnesses in this, Monsene's third trial. Twice previously in Trumbull county Monsene was convicted on the bribery charge, but each time the conviction was reversed.

Wednesday's crowd was said to have been the largest in the history of Ashtabula county's court room, to which Monsene was removed on a change of venue.

AL TALKS PLAIN

NEW YORK, May 10.—Governor Alfred E. Smith testified before the senate committee investigating campaign fund expenditures today that he had authorized no one to act as chairman of treasurer of any national campaign fund in his behalf. He said he understood that some of his friends in New York City had started a Smith presidential boom but he personally had "done nothing about it."

The governor said that any money spent in his behalf in New York City could be explained by George R. Van Namee. Personally, the governor had taken no active interest in the finances of friends who had interested themselves in his behalf.

OHIO'S CORRUPT PRACTICES ACT TO BE ENFORCED

That's Campaign Warning Sounded By Attorney-General Turner In Talk.

TOLEDO, O., May 10.—Warning to "everybody" including political candidates and contributors to political campaigns, that Ohio's corrupt practices act "will be enforced" was voiced here today by Attorney General Edward C. Turner, addressing the Women's Republican club of Lucas-co.

Turner said that, as a candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, he personally will not accept any contributions "from anyone, either directly, or through a committee. I shall not spend a total of more than $5,000 for both the nomination and election, if nominated," he said. "My own books and records will be open to inspection at any time, both before and after the nomination."

"As a matter of clean government," continued Turner, "I would like to see all candidates take the same stand on the acceptance of contributions. If any candidate feels that he cannot afford to spend his own money, then let him limit the amount of contributions which he will accept, either directly or through a committee, to the amount fixed by statute which in the case of governor, is $5,000. If a candidate spend in excess of the statutory limitation, he not only subjects himself to punishment but disqualifies himself from office."

WILLIAMSPORT SCENE OF SIX NIGHT THEFTS

Four Stores and Two Filling Stations Robbed; Loot Only $27.

Robbers who visited six places of business in Williamsport, Wednesday night, secured a total of $27 for their trouble.

Two restaurants, two stores and two gasoline filling stations were entered and the fact that the same method of gaining entrance was used as when the Schlar garage and the Columbus oil station here were entered several weeks ago, leads authorities to believe the same gang of robbers perpetrated the crimes.

The thieves cut panels out of the doors at the various places visited. Pitt's and Wing's restaurants, Luellen's drug store, Clark's, and the John L. Hunsicker and Cryder filling stations were the places robbed.

Five dollars was taken at the Wing restaurant, $13 at the Clark filling station and $9 at Cryder's. Stores at Ashville were also robbed in a similar manner recently.

Elliott Henry Suffers Burns In Auto Blaze

The right hand of Mr. Elliott Henry was slightly burned this morning when the top of his Essex coach caught on fire from a burning cigarette.

Mr. Henry had stopped his car for a traffic light and was lighting the cigarette when a spark ignited the felt roof. He was forced to work fast as the felt is highly inflammable and spreads quickly.

The injured hand was given immediate attention as it was burned quite badly.

RESIGNED HEAD OF SCHOOL WILL FURTHER STUDIES

Professor Cameron To Be Missed As School and S. S. Leader.

Prof. A. F. Cameron, superintendent of Pickaway-twp. centralized school, who has taught for 25 consecutive years, is planning to move his family to Columbus that he may take a much needed vacation and do some special work at Ohio State university.

During Mr. Cameron's 25 years of teaching experience, he spent nine years in Ross-co; 12 years in Fairfield-co. and the past four years as superintendent of Pickaway-twp. Centralized. This last school has prospered very much under Mr. Cameron's direction and is now one of the best systems in the county.

His services will be greatly missed in this community where he and his family have been loyal workers in the school, grange and social work.

Mr. Cameron is at present serving on the county board of examiners in Pickaway-co. He also served in such capacity for eight years in Fairfield-co. His friends in Sunday School work will miss his earnest efforts because he is now serving as superintendent of the Methodist Sunday School in Circleville.

HE LIKES PRISON

OSSINING, N. Y., May 10 — Carmine Casimino, 24, Sing Sing prison trusty, today was safely lodged in a cell where he will not get lost as he did last evening. Casimino took a walk outside the prison, got lost in Ossining and experienced all kinds of trouble in finding his way back to prison.

TO STOP SWEARING

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 10.—In an effort to check profanity over the telephone, the government has decided to install girl operators in the exchange at Bagdad. The telephone system throughout Turkey is antiquated and difficult to use, but that at Bagdad is said to be the worst. Patrons of the telephone system usually become so angry at their inability to get a number that they give vent to their feelings in profanity directed against the telephone and the operators. The "centrals" at present are men.

Basra is the only city in the Near East with the up-to-date system of automatic telephones.

STEALS GENE'S STUFF

NEW YORK, May 10 — "Hic, Haec, Hoc!"

Should prohibition enforcement agent hear these sounds issuing from the fraternity club here this afternoon, he need not be unduly alarmed. The gurgling noise will merely be part of a Latin lecture scheduled to be delivered by Tom Heeney, challenger for Gene Tunney's heavyweight title, and the lecture will not be given in pig Latin, but in the real Cicero vintage.

The New Zealander will attempt to snatch from Gene's classic brow the laurels won by the "great intellectual" in his lecture on Shakespeare before Yale students recently. It's all a part of the ballyhoo for the big fight.

BALTIMORE, May 10.—Joseph Samuels, wealthy Providence, R. Leon Samuels underwent an operation late Wednesday, and his brother reached his bedside Wednesday night.

Rotarian Code of Ethics Embraces Substantial Point of Real Living

HIS BUSINESS AND DEALINGS MUST BE FAIR

To Lift Human Ideals to Higher Plane Is Goal of Every True Clubman

The Rotary Code of Ethics Is:

My business standards shall have in them a note of sympathy for our common humanity. My business dealings, ambitions and relations shall always cause me to take into consideration my highest duties as a member of society. In every position in business life, in every responsibility that comes before me, my chief thought shall be to fill that responsibility and discharge that duty so when I have ended each of them, I shall have lifted the level of human ideals and achievements a little higher than I found it. As a Rotarian it is my duty:

FIRST:—To consider my vocation worthy, and as affording me distinct opportunity to serve society.

SECOND:—To improve myself, increase my efficiency and enlarge my service, and by so doing attest my faith in the fundamental principle of Rotary, that he profits most who serves best.

THIRD:—To realize that I am a business man and ambitious to succeed; but that I am first an ethical man, and wish no success that is not founded on the highest justice and morality.

FOURTH:—To hold that the exchange of my goods, my service and my ideas for profit is legitimate and ethical, provided that all parties in the exchange are benefited thereby.

FIFTH:—To use my best endeavors to elevate the standards of the vocation in which I am engaged, and so to conduct my affairs that others in my vocation may find it wise, profitable and conducive to happiness to emulate my example.

SIXTH:—To conduct my business in such a manner that I may give a perfect service equal to or even better than my competitor, and when in doubt to give added service beyond the strict measure of debt or obligation.

SEVENTH:—To understand that one of the greatest assets of

OH, YOU CIRCUS!

HAVING A CIRCUS. Mrs. Calvin Coolidge had an exciting time at the circus in Washington, where she was hostess to Suzanne Boone, daughter of her physician. She's shown pointing out an amusing freak to her little guest.

a professional or of a business man is his friends, and that any advantage gained by reason of friendship is eminently ethical and proper.

EIGHTH:—To hold that true friends demand nothing of one another, and that any abuse of the confidence of friendship for profit is foreign to the spirit of Rotary, and in violation of its Code of Ethics.

NINTH:—To consider no personal success legitimate or ethical which is secured by taking unfair advantage of certain opportunities in the social order that are absolutely denied others, nor will I take advantage of opportunities to achieve material success that others will not take because of the questionable morality involved.

TENTH:—To be not more obligated to a Brother Rotarian than I am to every other man in human society; because the genius of Rotary is not in its competition but in its cooperation; for provincialism can never have a place in an institution like Rotary, and Rotarians assert that human rights are not confined to Rotary clubs but are as deep and as broad as the race itself; and for these high purposes does Rotary exist to educate all men and all institutions.

ELEVENTH:—Finally, believing in the universality of the Golden Rule—All things whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye even so unto them—we contend that society best holds together when equal opportunity is accorded all men in the natural resources of this planet.

Science Befriends Skunk
Scientists now declare that the skunk is not a bird and egg-eating animal, as commonly supposed, naming grasshoppers, beetles, etc., as its chief food, while mice, rats and ground squirrels also go to make up its diet.

Into this club Mr. Harris decided to invite no other lawyers, but on the contrary surround himself with men, each one engaged in a different form of service to the public. This basis of membership still exists in Rotary. The members of the new club at first did not meet at luncheon, but met in rotation at the offices or places of business of the various members. This method of meeting suggested the name Rotary club. Philosophy Of Every-Day Life Is Rotary Idea

Rotary is a philosophy of every day living.

It undertakes to inspire men to realize fully their individual capacity for one hundred per cent citizenship in their state and nation, the square deal to their employees, their customers and their business or professional associates and, individually and through their association in Rotary clubs, to bring about understanding, good will and international peace through a world fellowship of business and professional men united in the ideal of service.

Because Rotary is a living philosophy its ideal of service must be expressed, and Rotarians, through all their daily business, social, and their civic contacts, actively engaged in their effort to reconcile the conflict between the desire for profit for one's self and the obligation and duty to serve others.

Their philosophy demands the consideration of service before self, based on the practical ethical principle that he profits most who serves best.

Mr. Harris decided to, and did, found a club wherein the members might not only become acquainted with one another, but also devise means of making themselves proficient in service toward their fellowmen and at the same time more useful to the community in general. This method of meeting suggested the name Rotary club. Today Rotary club is a phrase that stands for better business practices and loftier ideals in business and professional intercourse and for the development of international understanding and peace.

A little more than three years after the organization of the first

Rotary club in Chicago, the second Rotary club came into existence in San Francisco, and very shortly after the organization of the second club other clubs came into existence, first, on the Pacific coast, and then in New York and Boston, and other cities in the United States.

In 1910, the first sixteen clubs united themselves into an association for the purpose of extending the principles and practices of Rotary by organizing clubs in all commercial centers of the world. Shortly afterwards clubs were organized in Canada and in England and the work of extension has gone on until now there are over two thousand clubs, located in more than thirty countries, conducting their meetings in various languages, but all alike in the ideals and principles which their members respect and try to live up to, and in the fact that weekly meetings are held and good fellowship prevails.

Groups of Rotary clubs in near enough proximity to each other are constituted into districts and they have frequent inter-city meetings and each year hold a gathering of all the Rotarians of the district at what is called the annual District Conference.

Then once each year is held the great International convention, most often in the United States where the largest number of clubs are at the present time, but sometimes in other countries, and at this annual convention which lasts for about a week, representatives come from all the clubs in the world to get acquainted and fraternize, exchange impressions and talk over the principles and practices of Rotary.

There is a so-called spirit of Rotary which has the power to influence Rotarians and sometimes those who are outside the membership of the club to become better men in every way—better friends, better competitors, better husbands, fathers, and brothers, and better citizens. This power operates as the result of the efforts of Rotarians to make friendship one of the vital elements of true happiness, basing this friendship upon a sympathetic knowledge and understanding of one's fellowman, his business, his thoughts, his joys, and his sorrows.

Of course, such an active organization as Rotary has developed many service activities, chief among which is the interest of the Rotarians in the boys of their respective communities. The betterment of urban-rural understanding, and the rehabilitation of crippled children are other popular activities among Rotarians.

JURADO SHOWS UP AMERICANS IN GOLF PLAY

SANDWICH, ENG., May 10.—Flashing another epic round of 71, Jose Jurado, over night sensation from the Argentine, took the play away from Bill Merihorn, Walter Hagen and the Americans in general by topping the more than half completed second round of the British open golf championship today with a 36-hole total of 145. Hagen, replying with a fine 73 today, was in possession of second position at this point with an aggregate of 148.

Tommy Armour, American champion, was definitely eliminated from further play in the tournament by his 80 of today which gave him an aggregate of 161, more than the forbidden 15 strokes behind the leader. Jim Barnes retrieved his bad round of yesterday with a 73 today but he was well back from the pace at 154. Of the American Big Five, only Gene Sarazen was still to be heard from at this point.

TUBERCULOSIS CLINIC CLOSED. FEW SEE FILM

The tuberculosis clinic held at the Parish house of St. Philips, concluded its work Wednesday.

Tuberculosis in its early inception down to the last stages was shown by Dr. J. A. Frank, in movies. The film showed the business man, who was all out of sorts, who did not feel well and did not know what his trouble was. He finally sought a doctor, and his ailment was diagnosed as tuberculosis. Carelessness to a marked degree was shown. People seem to think lightly of tuberculosis, until it has fastened itself in their system, and the decline is then noted.

Only four persons outside of the medical staff present from Columbus, Chillicothe and Mt. Vernon viewed the movie on the screen.

COSTLY ACCIDENTS
A recent estimate of the cost of industrial accidents is that they involve the country in a loss of $10,000,000,000 a year. Many will say this figure is exaggerated. Yet the working power of a man may be destroyed for years or a life-time by such an accident, so the total loss is far above what most of us realize.

The working ability of our people is their greatest form of wealth, and when that is crippled by accident, the loss is something enormous. If every workshop would put in the best safety appliances, the reduction of accidents would largely increase the prosperity of the people. But such safety appliances will not accomplish the result, unless the work-people learn to keep their eyes open and to avoid risks.

WHY DID BENNETT GO?
The death of Floyd Bennett is a tragedy. He was a skilled flyer and a splendid man, and the country cannot well afford to lose him. Notable is the fact that Bennett was feeling the onset of his illness when he took off from Detroit. Newspaper accounts of his departure represent him as in poor health and low spirits. Had he stayed at home, it seems reasonable to suppose he would have recovered. An extended airplane journey surely cannot be the best thing in the world for a man coming down with pneumonia.

One wonders why Bennett had to make the trip. Was there no other experienced pilot in Detroit who could have replaced him at the last minute? Or did his own indomitable spirit compel him to go through with what he had agreed to do, even though he knew he was a sick man?

He died gallantly, giving his life to bring assistance to the aviators on Greenley Island. His death is a profound loss to all of us.

HALL OF FAME CANDIDATES
MORE names are added this month to the famous Hall of Fame collection at New York University, and the four this year are Louis Agassiz, Samuel Morse, John G. Whittier, and Rufus Choate. It was also announced that John Paul Jones and James Madison will probably be added to this list as soon as money is raised for the necessary statuary.

The selection of heroes of history for this tribute always gives an idea of the type of personalities whom the people admire the most. These six famous men named above include one scientist, one inventor, one poet, one lawyer, one naval commander, and one statesman.

Formerly people admired military commanders the most, but only one of these six was associated with war.

Some practical people would think that a poet like Whittier was hardly to be considered one of the country's greatest heroes. Yet someone once said that he cared not who made a nation's laws, if he could make their songs. The verses that touch the hearts of the people may exercise a more powerful influence than the laws that are supposed to regulate their conduct, but very often fail to do so. When people's emotions are touched as by song and poetry and music, then they get up and do things with all their might.

This age reveres science since it lightens toil and brings happiness into the home. They will always honor the men who render fine service in the legal profession, since these people make clear the distinctions between right and wrong. They admire the statesman, for he takes disorderly conditions and shapes them into community life where people can live and work in peace. They will always admire the achievement of great soldiers, but the day of war is passing, and we do not expect to create so many heroes of that kind from now on.

The last two might be called Mr. Coolidge's declining years. — Publishers Syndicate.

HAPPY bunch

Fellow men.

Them shirkers
Not within a pen
Are their efforts
Shrouded
But for all they Toil
When the sky is Clouded Down here on the Soil
You will find a Fellow Working with his Might
When the day
Is mellow,
Far into the night,
Always has a Fine soul,
Always has a grin,
Always has a Great goal
That he's about to win,
Never blue or Saddened
If he's lost the fight,
Some poor child
He's gladdened
That will make it Right;
Charity is fine,
Friend,
If you'll only seek
To help straighten Every bend
Your life won't Be meek—

And what we mean to say Is,
Rotary is great stuff
For a man indeed,
I would call this

What of those in need
Who these cludmen
Help each day
With some glad

SYNOPSIS
The Vasquez ranch is coveted by Buckwell, San Francisco boss. Vasquez won't sell. Buckwell and lawyer, Brandon, plan to void Vasquez land grant. Brandon's nephew, Terry, loves Dolores, Vasquez's beautiful granddaughter, and carries of plot. Vasquez spins warning and informs Terry that Dolores must marry young Spaniard. Terry, heartbroken, goes on spree. Dolores finds Terry in Frisco's Dodario Coast and is disillusioned.
Buckwell meets Dolores and is intrigued. He takes her to Frisco under guise of aiding. Terry saves Dolores and beats Buckwell. Terry is forgiven and Dolores Buckwell's real purpose. Buckwell in revenge tries to eject Vasquez by force.

CHAPTER XI—Continued
They marveled that anything so lovely as Dolores could live in the old vine covered house with its cracked masonry and neglected grounds.
"You are within your rights," said Terry, returning the paper.
"I have no legal right to stop you
—however, I suggest that you wait."
The afternoon sunlight was casting fantastic shadows on the group as they stood by the old burial grounds, but just when the surveyor accepted the letter from Terry a different, a taller and a more wavering shadow fell between them.

Looking up, they saw a white haired old man standing before them with upraised sword. On his wrinkled face there was an expres-

"Be-gone!" he ordered, brandishing the sword.
"Of grim determination and his eyes gleamed in wild fury. His appearance was that of an aristocratic gentleman suddenly bereft of his reason, and the surveyors and workmen stepped back as one man when he shook his sword in the air.

"There is no right," he shouted, quivering with rage, "legal or otherwise, that can take this sacred land of my fathers from me. This sword that wrested it from the wilderness will protect it from all invaders—" He paused dramatically, not that it was done for effect, but Vasquez was almost spent from so much exertion. Peering into the faces of the trespassers before him, he was inspired by their apparent bewilderment to continue. "Begone!" he ordered, brandishing the sword and lunging madly toward them.

Awed by the fierce, and what appeared to them insane, attack the men stopped aside and made room.
In their haste they neglected to pick up the transit and Vasquez hereupon brandished the instrument with his sword and demolished it before anyone ventured to interfere.

"Be-gone—I say!" he continued to shout, following the men as they retreated down the hill. "No one can desecrate this property or take it from me while I live to defend what is legally mine!"

The men could not make out to what kind of a place they had been sent. First an extravagantly attired grandee accosted them, second a dream of a girl appeared with a normal young man, then a raving old gentleman threatened to run them through with a sword. Driven down the hill toward the wagon that had brought them they decided to reload and return to town. No job was worth the risk of encourtering the same end that the "crazy warrior" had meted out to the surveying instrument.

Don Hernandez Vasquez watched from the hill crest until the freed grantee had loaded into the wagon and started away. Not for years had he experienced such a satisfactory sense of accomplishment as shown on his face when he came back to where Dolores, Terry and Don Luis were standing.

"I have driven them away!" he exclaimed triumphantly. "They shall not take my home away from me—it is all I have." Nothing could have been more certain than Vasquez's longing to retain the ancestral holdings.

Don Luis had watched and listened to the entire proceeding with growing surprise. It was unthinkable that the Vasquez ranch was to be seized. He knew the property was invaluable and had counted upon acquiring all the acres when Dolores became his wife—infact that was the reason he wanted her. She liked the hacienda and when he became master it was his plan to again harvest the fields and revive the vineyards. In time there would be money to spend and he could go off and enjoy himself while Dolores remained in the beloved surroundings as a very charming young matron who would always welcome him when he chose to return.

This new development was most distressing. Trying to appear gallant, now that the trouble was over, Don Luis inquired uneasily, "Does this mean that you have lost your lands—lost everything?"
Vasquez muttered angrily. It was impossible to make out any words, but it did not matter, he was living in a world of his own and lovingly polishing his sword with a large silk pocket handkerchief.

"I am afraid it does," replied Dolores sadly. "We refused to sell and are being forced out by an unprincipled politician who will take our land." She sighed and although no tears fell her eyes brimmed.
"Caramba!" exclaimed Don Luis, too taken aback to curb the outburst. It was an expression of personal disappointment, not regret for Dolores' misfortune. For a brief moment the mask of romance fell from his handsome countenance. It meant a complete readjustment of his future. "I am distressed that I cannot wait and serve you in some way, perhaps," he said, shaking his head with a fine show of sympathy, "but, senorita, I must return to Sacramento at once."

He could think of no quicker way out of the situation and he had no desire to waste any more time in futile courting since the true state of affairs had been revealed. Bowing his farewells—which were supposedly only temporary—Don Luis turned on his high heels and departed; a short way off he whirled about and waved a picturesque "adios" with the reminder that he would return in a few days. But he never did.

COLONEL STEWART MAY NOT RESIGN, WALL-ST. THINKS

Believe Rockefeller Move Is To Regain Leadership In Companies.

NEW YORK, May 10.—The demand of John D. Rockefeller Jr., that Colonel R. W. Stewart resign from his post as chairman of the Board of the Standard Oil company of Indiana, was viewed by financial leaders in Wall Street today as the first move by the Rockefeller family in a campaign to regain the position of leadership in companies formerly dominated by them. Furthermore, doubts were expressed that Rockefeller would be able to oust Stewart, because the latter has a strong following in the street.

In a statement issued here
Rockefeller requested Colonel Stewart's resignation because of his recent testimony before the senate public lands committee in the Teapot Dome inquiry. The oil magnate declared he "had lost confidence in Colonel Stewart's leadership." The request for the resignation was based on Stewart's admission to the Teapot Dome committee that he had shared in the Continental Trading company's fund to the extent of $750,- 000.

An answer by Stewart to Rockefeller's ultimatum was promised today at his office in Chicago. Although the colonel assured Rockefeller several weeks ago that he would resign if the latter should so request, it is believed in Wall Street that Stewart may decide to let the stockholders in the Indiana company decide the matter.
The Rockefeller's control only 25 per cent of the stock of the Indiana company.

Such a contest would be the first test of strength of the Rockefeller interests since the Standard Oil trust was broken up in 1911.
Although the Rockefeller's do not attempt to dictate to oil companies in which they are interested, resistance by Stewart's supporters in this instance probably would enable the Rockefeller's to establish their dominance over the Indiana company, in the view of Wall Street.

Mountain Sickness
As first effects of altitude, or "mountain sickness," the skin becomes rather dry and the digestive processes are deranged; then follow headache, loss of appetite aversion to all forms of physical effort, and drowsiness.

Expressive Mouth
The mouth, apparently, is the most expressive feature of the face.
In the psychological laboratory of Johns Hopkins university, photographs showing various emotions were taken and cut so that the eye-and mouth were separated. More students were able to define the emotions by the mouth half than by the upper part.

"Welcome Rotarians"

Every Woman Knows!

That a Kitchen Cabinet is the greatest time saver for her daily house work. It is the step saving servant that will make her work easier and she does not have that "All tired out" feeling after preparing a meal and gives her more time for recreation.

But there are some women that have not had this convenience in their kitchen. There are many kinds of Kitchen Cabinets but the "SELLERS" is an outstanding cabinet for convenience, with a large compartment for the pans and other kitchen utensils, a roomy shelf for the dishes, a handy flour bin and a large sugar jar in a metal rack, easy to handle, a porcelain covered work board which pulls out to be twenty-four inches wide. It also comes with jars for spices with stickers to put on jars to denote contents.

There are other fine points about the "SELLERS" that we will be glad to show you.

JURADO SHOWS UP AMERICANS IN GOLF PLAY

SANDWICH, ENG., May 10—Flashing another epic round of 71 Jose Jurado, over night sensation from the Argentine, took the play away from Bill Meriborn, Walter Hagen and the Americans in general by topping the more than half completed second round of the British open golf championship today with a 36-hole total of 145. Hagen, replying with a fine 73 today, was in possession of second position at this point with an aggregate of 148.

Mehhorn, blowing up like a premature blast, took 41 strokes on the last nine holes to score a 78 and tie with Archie Compston, arch rival of Hagen, for third position at this juncture.

Tommy Armour, American champion, was definitely eliminated from further play in the tournament by his 80 of today which gave him an aggregate of 161, more than the forbidden 15 strokes behind the leader. Jim Barnes retrieved his bad round of yesterday with a 73 today but he was well back from the pace at 154. Of the American Big Five, only Gene Sarazen was still to be heard from at this point.

TUBERCULOSIS CLINIC CLOSED; FEW SEE FILM

The tuberculosis clinic held at the Parish house of St. Philips, concluded its work Wednesday. Tuberculosis in its early inception down to the last stages was shown by Dr. J. A. Frank in movies. The film showed the business man, who was all out of sorts, who did not feel well and did not know what his trouble was. He finally sought a doctor, and his ailment was diagnosed as tuberculosis. Carelessness to a marked degree was shown. People seem to think lightly of tuberculosis, until it has fastened itself in their system, and the decline is then noted.

Only four persons outside of the medical staff present from Columbus, Chillicothe and Mt. Vernon viewed the movie on the screen.

GORDON TIRES TO PLAY DARBYVILLE

The Gordon Tires baseball team will meet Darbyville in a return game here this Sunday afternoon.

The Gordons were defeated last Sunday afternoon in a hot and heavy game with Darbyville at that city's ball park.

The whole game was well played and the Gordon Tires gave proof that they have a good layout of baseball material. There were several spectacular plays during the afternoon, one especially that gave the fans a real thrill. In the bottom of the eighth, Gordon Tires, socked a homer with three bases full. It was one play that brought the fans to their feet.

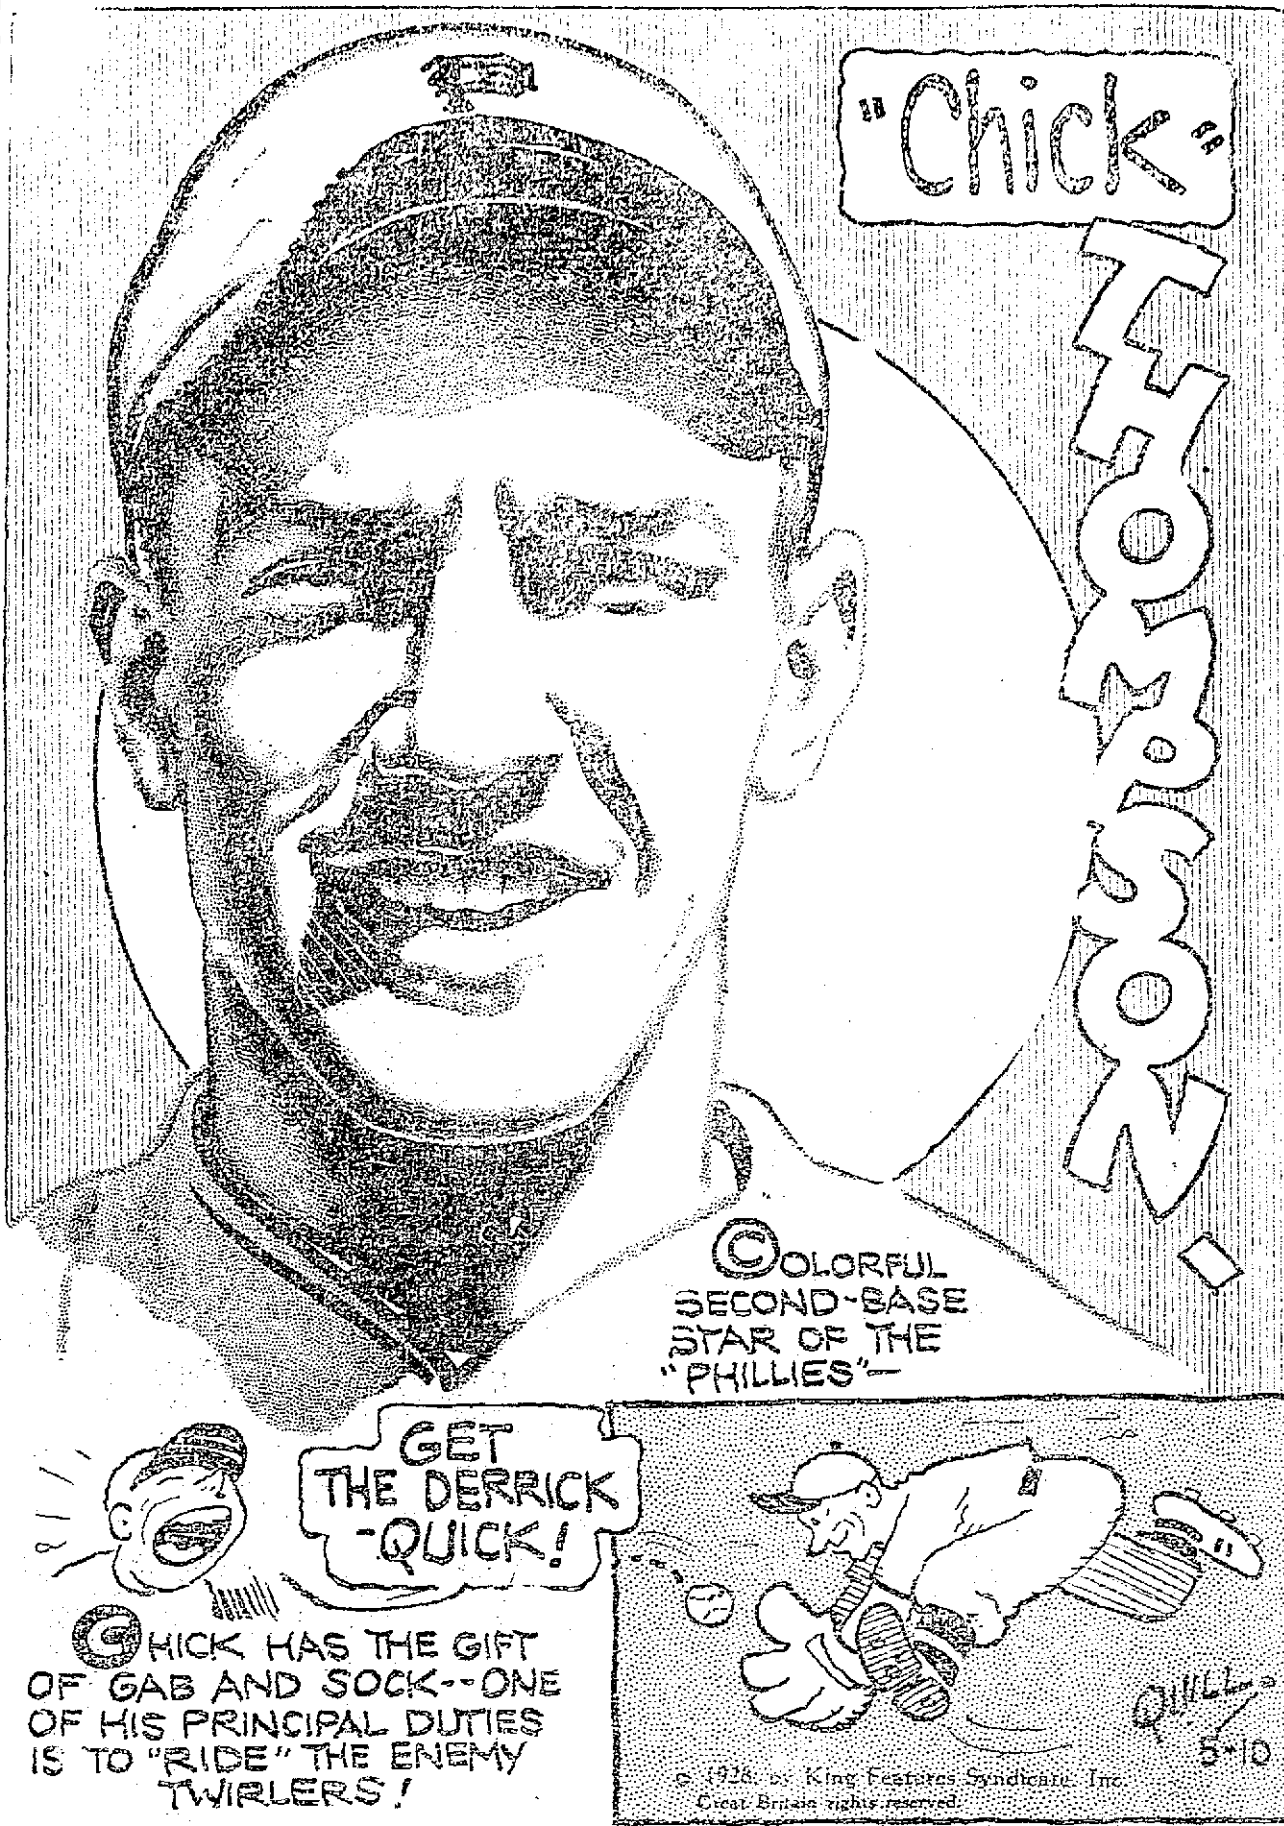

This team will play regularly at the Mason field on N. Court-st. during the summer and should bring out a good crowd.

RIDE 'EM, CHICK

COLORFUL SECOND-BASE STAR OF THE "PHILLIES"

SPORTSMATTER

BY FRANK GETTY

NEW YORK, May 10 (United Press).—Already the agitation for starting the baseball season a week or two later each spring is dying down and by the time August rolls round there probably will be no one left to squawk against mid-April inaugurals.

Year after year, with many postponements due to inclement weather, there has arisen a mighty but only transitory cry from fans and ball players.

Rain and cold—sometimes even snow—conspire to ruin festivities and double-headers pile up. Suggestions are made that the openings be postponed each year to May 1.

But the fact is that weather in both the east and middle-west, where all the major league teams are located, is an uncertain quantity not only in late April but in early May. There have been plenty of instances where clubs played through their entire April schedules only to run into floodgates of rain in May.

And since the fans seem capable of supporting a schedule of 154 games a season, there appears no reason for shortening the number of games to 140. After all, double-headers usually draw so well that they make up for the early season losses.

The only valid argument against the mid-April start is the fact that cold weather causes so much illness among the players. This year the sick-list of nearly all the clubs was especially large. But even the players themselves forget their grievances when the summer heat enters the picture.

A contributor to a local newspaper column has discovered that Gene Tunney's hobby is anything with a William in it. He points to William Gibson, William Egan, William McCabe, William McAvoy, William O. McGeehan, William Muldoon, William Lyon Phelps and William Shakespeare. And, of course, William Harrison Dempsey.

Early returns indicate that Connie Mack may have made a mistake in letting pitcher Sam Gray get away from the Athletics in the trade that brought Outfielder "Bing" Miller from the Browns. Gray's early victories showed that he has not lost his skill on the mound.

But according to apparently well-founded reports Mack and Gray did not get along together any too well and elimination of club dispersion is sometimes worth any price.

The arrival of Archie Compston, conqueror of Walter Hagen, in the United States some time before the American Open Golf championship is held at Chicago on June 21 probably will be the signal for a series of challenges.

Maudsland Smith entered his challenge early. The members of the Lakeville club in Great Neck, N. Y., where Smith is pro, expressed themselves willing to back Compston for "any amount" in a 72-hole match. Half of the match would be played at Lakeville and the other 36 holes at any course selected by the long-driving Boston.

A challenge also is expected from Johnny Farrell and Compston has a lot of work ahead of him here if he is to accept the various bets expected.

WATCH US GO! AMSTERDAM, May 10.—Visitors Olympic games in Amsterdam this year will not want for amusements. Ordinarily Amsterdam cafes and bars close at 1 a. m. But the town council, perhaps catering to visitors from "dry" countries, has decreed that they may remain open an hour later while the games are in progress.

PYLE'S CREW MOVING INTO BUCKEYE SOIL

Youthful Britisher Is Still Heading Pack With Wauseon First Ohio Town

By LELAND C. LEWIS

I. N. S. Special Correspondent

BUTLER, IND., May 10.—C. C. "Cross Country" Pyle's 61 blistered bunions moved forward from here today with Indiana left behind on the day's 42-mile trek to Wauseon, Ohio.

The heel and toe caravaneers that left Los Angeles have left behind California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri and Illinois on their east bound trek.

Heading the pack was Peter Gavuzzi, youthful Britisher, who traversed 2578.7 miles in 67 consecutive days in an elapsed time of 411:02:06.

Six hours, nine minutes, 23 seconds behind him was Andrew Payne, youthful Oklahoman who holds second place.

Yesterday's trek, 41.8 miles found Philip Granville, Jamaica negro of Hamilton, Ontario, setting the pace in 5:38:28 and which further entrenched him in fourth place.

Fremont, Ohio, 58 miles east of Wauseon, will be tomorrow's control with the runners skirting Toledo during the day. This total of 100 miles in two days.

Elyria, Ohio, 54 miles from Fremont, will be reached Saturday, with the caravan pushing on to Cleveland Sunday.

Maintenance of the present schedule is calculated to reduce the field noticeably during the next ten days prior to the speed sprints before arrival in New York Saturday, May 26.

Orange juice and honey, that is the prescription for endurance offered by the two California vegetarians, Roy Sandberry, Beverly Hills, and Karl Larsen, Los Angeles dane, who have become real threats in the race since the daily mileage was extended. They hold 25th and 39th places in the race and both have gained weight since starting the long grind.

"We both have a pint of orange juice mixed with honey for breakfast," Larsen who made the fifth best time yesterday said, "then each hour on the road we have more orange juice. At night we eat our one meal of the day, milk whole wheat bread, cottage cheese a head of lettuce. Some may scoff but we are carrying on without meat or eggs and pulling ahead daily."

Ed Gardner, Seattle sheik who dropped downward in the elapsed standings, was nursing a shin splint, the first handicap that he has encountered since leaving Los Angeles.

"I thought I was done for," Gardner said, "however Hugo Quist brought me around and I'll be all right in a few days and then I will fight my way back."

Paul Simpson, of Burlington, N. C., finished yesterday in 7:52:47 for an elapsed total of 718:39:20.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Having withdrawn both direct assaults and filibustering tactics, the House bill providing for government manufacture of fertilizer and hydroelectric power at Muscle Shoals was temporarily laid aside today.

Unless House leaders provide a special rule for the measure, consideration is scheduled to be resumed on next Wednesday when the military affairs committee again has the right-of-way on the floor.

YANKS GO GOOD

NEW YORK, May 10.—The New York Yankees have been setting a faster pace this season than during the early days of the 1927 American League season. It is the fact that they were out of first place for some of the spring.

The champions have won 15 of their first 20 games this season. In their first 20 starts last year they won 16 games, lost seven and tied one.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

HEAVY CHAMP OF ITALY ARRIVES

Umberto Torriani, heavyweight champion of Italy, who has finished off every contender in five rounds or under, is here breathing defiance and challenge to Mr. Tunney at any sort of contest. The new arrival is an ardent follower of the classics, including Homer and Shakespeare, and is willing to swap punches, similes or metaphors with the classical Gene.

DEBATERS CONVENE

COLUMBUS, May 10.—The annual meeting of the Ohio High School Debating League and the final round of its first debating tournament for the "state title" will be held on the campus of the Ohio State university here Saturday.

Heraldic Device

In heraldry an emplacement is a display of arms side by side on one shield, and a husband's and a wife's, or the private and official arms of a head of a college.

Light Colors for Walls

It has been advocated that tall buildings in groups should have light-colored outer walls, so that the light-reflecting surface may benefit the lighting conditions in the neighboring buildings.

Window Plants

Never water window plants unless the soil looks dry. Then on enough water on them to wet the soil thoroughly. Too much water will quickly rot house plants.

Milk Takes Place of Ink

It is stated that Ovid, the ancient philosopher, taught his pupils to write by using milk on brown paper.

3 big features found in no other low-priced six

Offering bodies by Fisher, the Pontiac Six brings to the low-priced field not only the style and smartness, but also the luxury, roominess and staunch construction inherent in Fisher design.

Embodying the G-M-R (General Motors Research) cylinder head, Pontiac combines amazing smoothness and silence with economy of operation, using ordinary gasoline.

And providing the thermostatically-controlled cross-flow radiator, it practically eliminates losses of water and alcohol and assures the proper temperatures for highest engine efficiency.

Bodies by Fisher—G-M-R Cylinder Head—Cross-flow Radiator... here are three big features found in no other low-priced six that no buyer of a six in Pontiac's class can afford to overlook. If the New Series Pontiac Six offered no other exclusive advantages, it would still hold its rightful position as the world's finest, low-priced Six.

GORDON TIRES TO PLAY DARBYVILLE

The Gordon Tires baseball team will meet Darbyville in a return game here this Sunday afternoon. The Gordons were defeated last Sunday afternoon in a hot and heavy game with Darbyville at that city's ball park.

The whole game was well played and the Gordon Tires gave proof that they have a good layout of baseball material. There were several spectacular plays during the afternoon, one especially that gave the fans a real thrill. Inler, batting for Gordon Tires, socked a homer with three bases full. It was one play that brought the fans to their feet.

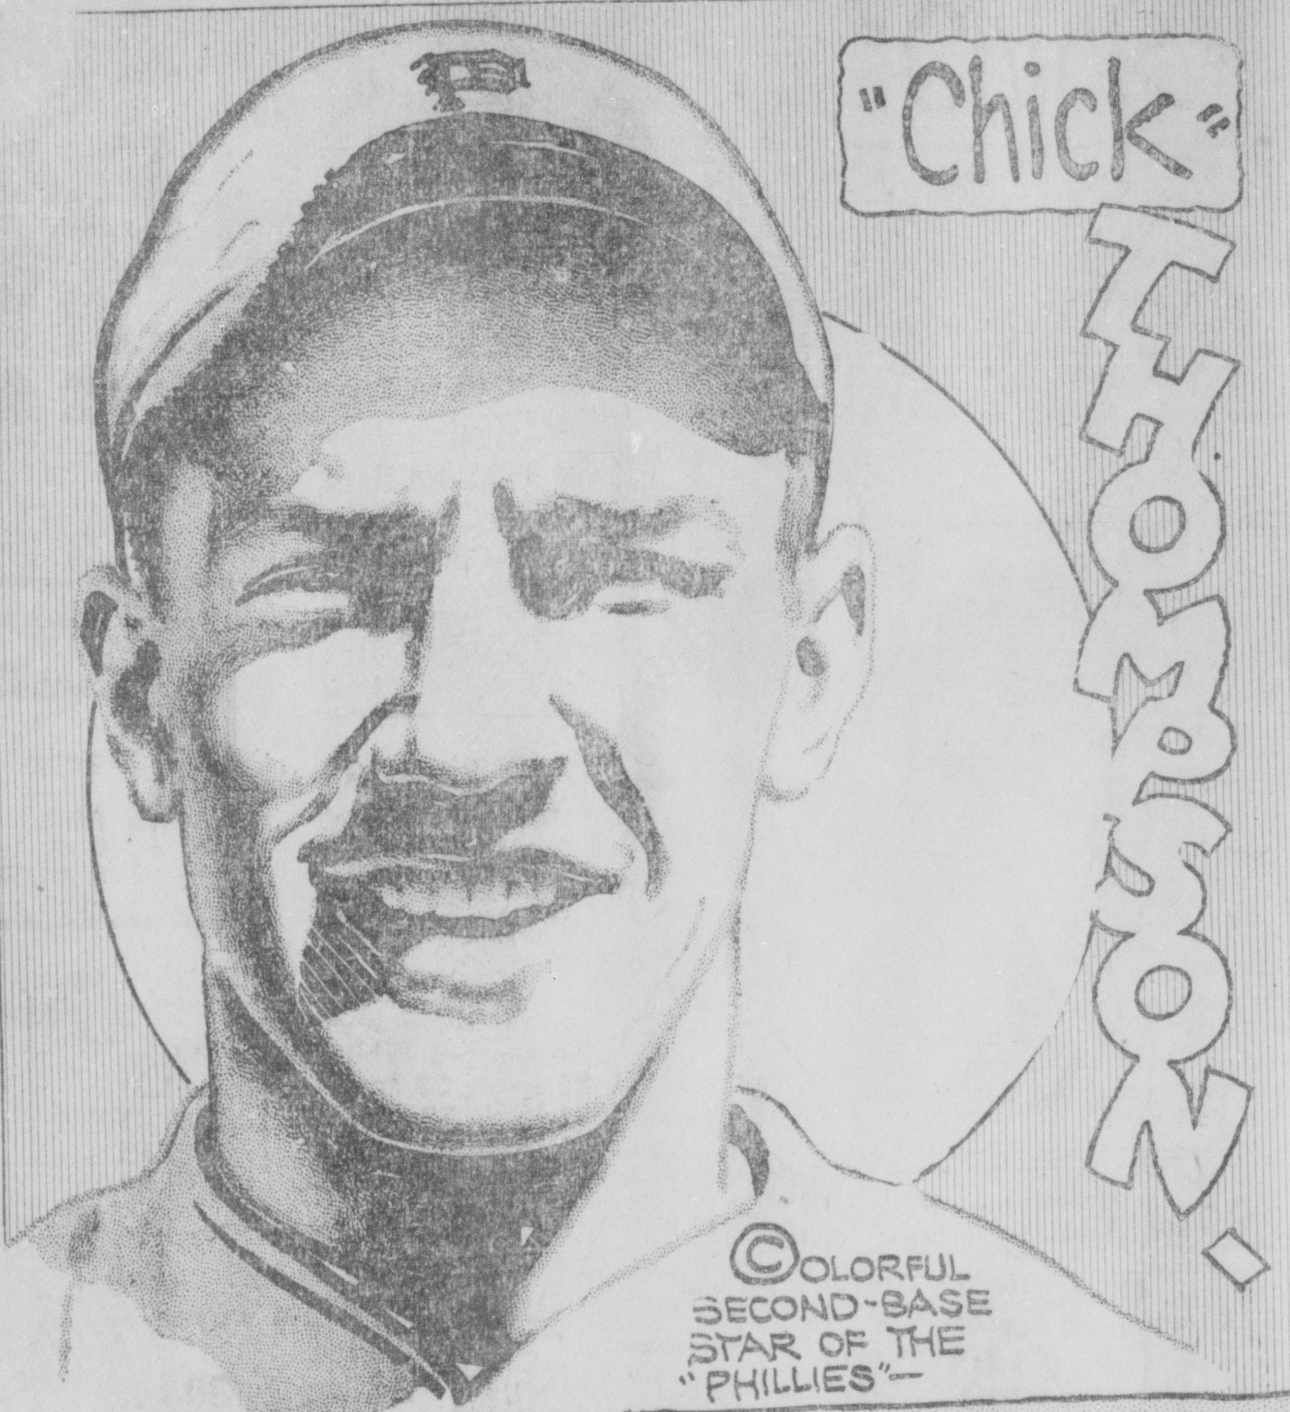

This team will play regularly at the Mason field on N. Court-st. during the summer and should bring out a good crowd.

SPORTSMATTER

BY FRANK GETTY

NEW YORK, May 10 (United Press).—Already the agitation for starting the baseball season a week or two later each spring is dying down and by the time August rolls round there probably will be no one left to squawk against mid-April inaugurals.

Year after year, with many postponements due to inclement weather, there has arisen a mighty but only transitory cry from fans and ball players.

Rain and cold—sometimes even snow—conspire to ruin festivities and double-headers pile up. Suggestions are made that the openings be postponed each year to May 1.

But the fact is that weather in both the east and middle-west, where all the major league teams are located, is an uncertain quantity not only in late April but in early May. There have been plenty of instances where clubs played through their entire April schedules only to run into floodgates of rain in May.

And since the fans seem capable of supporting a schedule of 154 games a season, there appears no reason for shortening the number of games to 140. After all, double-headers usually draw so well that they make up for the early season losses.

The only valid argument against the mid-April start is the fact that cold weather causes so much illness among the players. This year the sick-list of nearly all the clubs was especially large. But even the players themselves forget their grievances when the summer heat enters the picture.

A contributor to a local newspaper column has discovered that Gene Tunney's hobby is anything with a William in it. He points to William Gibson, William Egan, William McCabe, William McAvoy, William O. McGeehan, William Muldoon, William Lyon Phelps and William Shakespeare. And, of course, William Harrison Dempsey.

Early returns indicate that Connie Mack may have made a mistake in letting pitcher Sam Gray get away from the Athletics in the trade that brought Outfielder "Bing" Miller from the Browns. Gray's early victories showed that he has not lost his skill on the mound.

But according to apparently well-founded reports Mack and Gray did not get along together any too well and elimination of club dissension is sometimes worth any price.

The arrival of Archie Compston, conqueror of Walter Hagen, in the United States some time before the American Open Golf championship is held at Chicago on June 21 probably will be the signal for a series of challenges.

Macdonald Smith entered his challenge early. The members of the Lakeville club in Great Neck, N. Y., where Smith is pro, expressed themselves willing to back Compston for "any amount" in a 72-hole match. Half of the match would be played at Lakeville and the other 36 holes at any course selected by the long-driving Briton.

A challenge also is expected from Johnny Farrell and Compston has a lot of work ahead of him here if he is to accept the various defis expected.

WATCH US GO!

AMSTERDAM, May 10—Visitors Olympic games in Amsterdam this year will not want for liquid refreshments. Ordinarily Amsterdam cafes and bars close at 1 a. m. But the town council, perhaps catering to visitors from "dry" countries, has decreed that they may remain open an hour later while the games are in progress.

PYLE'S CREW MOVING INTO BUCKEYE SOIL

Youthful Britisher Is Still Heading Pack With Wauseon First Ohio Town

By LELAND C. LEWIS

I. N. S. Special Correspondent
BUTLER, IND., May 10 — C. C. "Cross Country" Pyle's 61 blistered bunions moved forward from here today with Indiana left behind on the day's 42-mile trek to Wauseon, Ohio.

The heel and toe caravaneers that left Los Angeles have left behind, California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri and Illinois on their east bound trek.

Heading the pack was Peter Gavuzzi, youthful Britisher, who traversed 2579.7 miles in 67 consecutive days in an elapsed time of 411:02:06.

Six hours, nine minutes, 23 seconds behind him was Andrew Payne, youthful Oklahoman who holds second place.

Yesterday's trek, 41.8 miles found Philip Granville, Jamaica negro of Hamilton, Ontario, setting the pace in 5:35:28 and which further entrenched him in fourth place.

Fremont, Ohio, 58 miles east of Wauseon, will be tomorrow's control with the runners skirting Toledo during the day. This total of 100 miles in two days.

Elyria, Ohio, 54 miles from Fremont, will be reached Saturday, with the caravan pushing on to Cleveland Sunday.

Maintenance of the present schedule is calculated to reduce the field noticeably during the next ten days prior to the speed sprints before arrival in New York Saturday, May 26.

Orange juice and honey, that is the prescription for endurance offered by the two California vegetarians, Roy Sandberry, Beverly Hills, and Karl Larsen, Los Angeles dane, who have become real threats in the race since the daily mileage was extended. They hold 25th and 39th places in the race and both have gained weight since starting the long grind.

"We both have a pint of orange juice mixed with honey for breakfast," Larsen who made the fifth best time yesterday said, "then each hour on the road we have more orange juice. At night we eat our one meal of the day, milk whole wheat bread, cottage cheese a head of lettuce. Some may scoff but we are carrying on without meat or eggs and pulling ahead daily."

Ed Gardner, Seattle sheik who dropped downward in the elapsed standings, was nursing a shin splint, the first handicap that he has encountered since leaving Los Angeles.

"I thought I was done for," Gardner said, "however Hugo Quist brought me around and I'll be all right in a few days and then I will fight my way back."

Paul Simpson, of Burlington, N. C., finished yesterday in 7:52:47 for an elapsed total of 718:39:20.

NEW YORK, May 10 — The New York Yankees have been setting a faster pace this season than during the early days of the 1927 American League race, despite the fact that they were out of first place for some time this spring.

The champions have won 15 of their first 20 games this season. In their first 20 starts last year they won 12 games, lost seven and tied one.

Heraldic Device

In heraldry an emplacement is a display of arms side by side on one shield, and a husband's and a wife's, or the private and official arms of a head of a college.

Light Colors for Walls

It has been advocated that tall buildings in groups should have light-colored outer walls, so that the light-reflecting surface may benefit the lighting conditions in the neighboring buildings.

Window Plants

Never water window plants unless the soil looks dry. Then put enough water on them to wet the soil thoroughly. Too much water will quickly rot house plants.

Milk Takes Place of Ink

It is stated that Ovid, the ancient philosopher, taught his pupils to write by using milk on brown paper.

3 big features found in no other low-priced six

Offering bodies by Fisher, the Pontiac Six brings to the low-priced field not only the style and smartness, but also the luxury, roominess and staunch construction inherent in Fisher design.

Embodying the G-M-R (General Motors Research) cylinder head, Pontiac combines amazing smoothness and silence with economy of operation, using ordinary gasoline.

And providing the thermostatically-controlled cross-flow radiator, it practically eliminates losses of water and alcohol and assures the proper temperatures for highest engine efficiency.

Bodies by Fisher—G-M-R Cylinder Head—Cross-flow Radiator... here are three big features found in no other low-priced six that no buyer of a six in Pontiac's class can afford to overlook. A New Record for stock cars under $1400

Better than a mile a minute for 5000 miles

The Dictator $1195 to $1395

By traveling 5,000 miles in 4,751 consecutive minutes, the Studebaker Dictator has established a record unequalled by any stock car under $1400—comparable to the existing world record of 5,000 miles in 4,559 minutes made by The Studebaker Commander last fall.

And not one, but two Dictator Roadsters, fully equipped, each traveled 5,000 miles in less than that number of minutes. The run was made at the Atlantic City Speedway, April 20-23, under the supervision of the Contest Board of the American Automobile Association. Before and after the run, the cars were checked by the Technical Committee and were pronounced strictly stock models.

CLAIMS vs. FACTS

Automobile advertising is full of extravagant claims of performance. But Studebaker offers you definite FACTS supported by the certificate of the highest motoring authority. Under A. A. A. supervision

The Commander has made a record never approached by any other car on earth (25,000 miles in less than 23,000 minutes). The Erskine and The Dictator have made records unequalled by any other stock cars at or near their prices.

The high quality of materials, the precision workmanship, the rigid inspections and the engineering genius in the Studebaker Dictator are proved not only by its ability to travel 5,000 miles in less than 4,800 consecutive minutes, but also by the fact that any Dictator can be driven 40 miles per hour as soon as it leaves the assembly line at the factory.

Backed by Studebaker's 76-year reputation for quality and value, The Dictator offers champion performance at a low One-Price price.

Values in Four Price Fields

President Eight, $1985 to $2485; The Commander, $1435 to $1625; The Dictator, $1195 to $1395; The Erskine Six, $795 to $965. All prices f. o. b. factory.

DRAMA OF THE AIR

It was not so long ago that the first real epic of the War in the air swept across the motion picture horizon, establishing itself as the forerunner of its kind and leaving no doubt in the minds of the general public that here, truly, was a screen story that would live.

Paramount, however, took up its own challenge and produced "The Legion of the Condemned," called the champion picture to "Wings." It came to the Metropolitan theatre for a run of three days last night, and judging from the reaction of the first night audience, "The Legion of the Condemned" is more than a companion—it is a pal.

Capital University Glee Club
Delights Large Audience Here

THE Varsity Glee club of Capital university assisted by the college orchestra delighted a large audience at the Lutheran Parish house Wednesday night.

The entire program was splendid, but deserving of special mention were the solos of Ralph M. Ground, tenor, and Samuel Loyer, baritone. The trumpet duet of Liefeld and Crist, director, was also very popular. Most of the soloists were generous with their encores, in response to the hearty applause of the audience.

Primarily the concert was presented by the Glee club, but the part of the program offered by the 14 piece orchestra was also very much enjoyed.

Under the leadership of Wilbur E. Crist, of Middletown, they played a delightful program of Victor Herbert music. Carl Leist, violinist of the orchestra is the son of Attorney and Mrs. C. A. Leist, of N. Pickaway-st.

was concluded Tuesday, May 8.

The shooting was done from three distances—20, 35 and 50 yards. Every one participating was an amateur, as the scores show, but it was a good beginning, and a great deal of interest has been aroused by the organization among the boys and girls of high school age.

When the scores were counted, Kenneth Majors was first with a 378 out of a possible 750. He was presented with a silver loving cup, which he will keep permanently. The next four high scores were made by Floyd Hill, George McDowell, G. J. Lampel and Dewitt Bach. Plans will go ahead for the furtherance of interest in this sport, and perhaps a junior rifle league will be organized among the different county high schools.
